

Global Archive for Standard satellite Imageries (GASS)

Global Archive for Standard Satellite Imageries (GASS) is a data warehouse that contains and manages all existing standard products. GASS will further facilitate operators with a powerful management tool that allow rapid metadata transfer and seamless data synchronization with GISTDA service platform as One-stop archive & services.